25X1 [redacted] Met with Representative F. Edward Hebert who advised that in addition to his bimonthly telecast on Sunday, his New Orleans office was also putting out a news release through the TIMES PICAYUNE on Monday under a suggested title, "How Much Money Are the Soviets Spending to Influence American Organizations and Students". He also advised that although he had intended to do so, he had not made a tape of the TV appearance and did not have a copy of the release for the press. He suggested that his old friend, [redacted] (area personnel office recruiter) might be able to listen and see what he thinks of the telecast and might be able to clip the news items for us. I thanked Mr. Hebert for the information. Mr. Goodwin's office has been notified and [redacted] has been contacted by the Office of Personnel to transcribe the telecast and clip various news releases for forwarding directly to Mr. Goodwin's office.

25X1 [redacted] Attempted to meet with Carl Marcy, Staff Director, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to advise that the Agency has Senator Fulbright's letter concerning a Center for International Studies, MIT, and is preparing a response. Mrs. McFall, assistant to Mr. Marcy, advised that she would transmit the message to him as he would be tied up with Senator Gore and the Chairman for the remainder of the day.

25X1 [redacted] In answer to her previous inquiry, advised Mrs. Barbara Beyer, in the office of Congressman James B. Utt, that we had no information to substantiate that the Russian Ambassador to North Vietnam, I. S. Shcherbakov, was a general in the Soviet Army or head of the Guerrilla Warfare Section. Mrs. Beyer thanked us for our help and said that she would use this unclassified information without CIA attribution.

25X1 [redacted] As he had earlier suggested, met briefly with Mr. Jerome Schaller, Administrative Assistant to Senator Walter Mondale. Mr. Schaller explained that he would be leaving the Senator in the next several weeks, but had not yet decided upon which of the three job offers he would accept. He said he would keep in touch.
